F. R. Lilly met with quite a serious accident last Saturday afternoon. He went out after a load of hay after dinner, and as he had not returned at dark his family became uneasy. Elmer Hawk and Charley Shafer went to look for him. It appears that he loaded up his wagon and was attempting to get on when the the team ran away, upsetting the wagon, with Mr. Lilly under the load. He thinks he was beneath the hay a couple of hours before he was able to make his way out and crawl to the barn, where he was found about ten o'clock that night and brought home. He was severely hurt both externally and internally and it will be some days before he will be out again.
