

---

Four young men of this place, viz: Joseph Lobsinger, Martin Anderson, Knute Gulmon, and Philip Wagner, left Wednesday evening for Prince Albert, N. W. T., where they purpose taking up homesteads in the Canadian Northwest. We wish them success, though we think they should have located on the south side of the boundary line.

---

A new time card went into effect on