

---

The eight year old son of Mr. W. R. Barnes, of Rogers, who has been ailing for a long time, died last Saturday, and was buried in the Sanborn cemetery. This is the third death in the Barnes family in the past few months and the sympathy of their friends go out to them in their affliction.

---