

---

Mr. A. B. Cooper, who has been living on the McFarland place south of town, died last Sunday night. An operation for appendicitis was performed Tuesday of last week by Dr. A. A. J. Lang assisted by Dr. Pray, of Valley City. The body was taken Tuesday evening of this week to Jamestown for burial. Deceased had a son living at Oakes and one at Jamestown. He was born in New York state and was about 60 years of age. He came to Dakota Territory in 1879.