

Demise of Mrs. W. O. Green.

Mrs. Green, wife of Mr. W. O. Green, of Island lake neighborhood, sustained a second stroke of paralysis last Thursday resulting in her death last Sunday morning. Mrs. Green never regained consciousness from the time she was stricken until her death. Two years ago she had the first stroke and had never fully recovered, though able to be around.

The funeral services were held at her late home, 11 miles southwest of this place, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Beebe of New Rockford, formerly pastor of the Congregational church of Sanborn, conducting the services.

Notwithstanding the day was very cold, Sanborn friends to the number of fifteen or twenty, comprised mostly of the Masonic fraternity, attended the funeral services, the pall bearers being selected from the Eastern Star, of which order Mr. and Mrs. Green were members.

Flowers were sent by Prairie Chapter order of the Eastern Star.

The body was shipped to the former home of the deceased for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Green had many friends here, and the grief stricken husband and sorrowing sons have the heartfelt sympathy of the community upon the sad occasion of the removal from earth of a beloved wife and mother.
