

---

A thirteen year old boy of Jake Harshman, of Eckelson, died Tuesday, and two or three other cases in the same family are reported. County Physician Buesson was out to attend the patients yesterday. Mr. Harshman himself has been in the county hospital since last December, and will probably have to remain another month. The family is having an extra amount of hard luck.

---