Lifeless Body of Tom Hinchberger Found Near The Station At Eckelson Today.

A telephone message was received this morning that Tom Hinchberger had been found dead in the ditch beside the track just east of the depot, and it is supposed he was killed by a train sometime during the night. It is not known when or just how the unfortunate young man met his death. He was last seen about 10 o'clock last evening and his body was found about 10:30 this morning. Undertaker Shannon brought the body to his rooms in this place. Coroner Pray has arrived and will hold an inquest.
