

The following notice was taken from a Michigan paper. Mr. Schwegler was a resident of Sanborn in pioneer days, and is a relative of the Zinggs, Kees and Thompsons:—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schwegler, formerly of this city, now residing at 425 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, will be sorry to hear of the death of their eldest daughter, Edna, who died Wednesday. Miss Schwegler was well known in this city. She was a fine musician and possessed of a most lovable disposition. Mr. Schwegler at one time kept the confectionery store now owned by Chas. Burkhardt.
