Happily Wedded.

Robert E. Kee of Sanborn and Emma A. Bronson of Spiritwood, were married Wednesday afternoon, January 20th, 1904, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. A. Bronson, in Jamestown, by the Rev. S. A. Danford, pastor of the M. E. church of Jamestown. The young people will make their home on the farm south of town.

Mr. Kee is a well known and prosperous young farmer who has grown up from childhood in this vicinity. The bride is an estimable young lady who formerly taught school in the Kee district. Their many friends will be pleased to tender congratulations and best wishes.
