
Citizen:—Roy Beleal, second son of E. J. Beleal, was injured very badly this afternoon while working on the ice gang. His leg was caught between two heavy cakes of ice and so badly crushed below the knee that the flesh was burst. He was taken to the Brainerd Sanitarium, where it was learned that no bones were broken. His father accompanied him to Brainerd.
