

Mr. Will Bump, who has been working for D. R. Jones the past eight months attempted to commit suicide by drinking carbolic acid Tuesday evening. He received a package and a letter that evening, which is supposed to have caused the trouble. He left Thursday evening for the Twin Cities.