

---

Mr. Emil Langer has decided to open a drug store in the wide awake and rapidly growing town of Medina, on the line of the Northern Pacific railroad, between Jamestown and Bismarck. We regret to learn that Mr. Langer and his estimable young wife have decided to leave us. It will be a decided loss to our town and Medina is to be congratulated in securing them as citizens.

---