

---

Alvin Noecker met with a very painful accident yesterday by which one of his thumbs was torn off and several inches of one of the cords torn out. He was placing the belt on the feed mill when the accident occurred and his mitten was pulled off leaving the thumb in it.

---