

---

Ed Thompson was suddenly siezed with a sort of fainting spell one day last week and fell from the vehicle on which he was riding, sustaining numerous bruises and contusions about the the head and face. He is all right again, we are pleased to say.

---