

Eckelson Echoes.

[The following items were intended for last week's paper but were carried up the branch and returned too late.]

Fred Poole is with the crew on Goran Johnson's threshing machine.

Peter Rasmussen sold section 13 to eastern parties last week.

Prof. Mulrine has enrolled about 22 pupils, a large number for this busy season.

The family of Mr. Arne Berg, a few miles north of this place, lost a little son recently from scarlet fever.

Messrs. Wilcox and Stearns now