

---

Major M. G. Cushing died at the Hampshire Arms in Minneapolis last Friday night. The remains were taken east by Mrs. M. G. Cushing and W. F. Cushing, who came from St. Louis to meet them. Major Cushing was born in Hingham, Mass., and was 77 years of age at the time of his death. The illness which preceded his death had its inception in a fall he received a year or so ago, when in looking through some apartments he fell entirely down a cellar way, suffering injuries from which he eventually died. Major Cushing was formerly a resident of Valley City and served as Clerk of the Court of Barnes county, and has many friends through the county and state who will regret to learn of his death.

---