

After a six weeks sickness due to a complication of diseases, George C. Eager, the well known city clerk of Jamestown, died yesterday morning at his home in that city. He has been a sufferer with a valvular heart trouble for some time, also with a complication of stomach trouble. Funeral will occur Friday.

---