

Funeral of Mr. R. O. Heath.

Capital:—The funeral of Mr. Russell Heath was held at 2 p. m. from the family residence, Rev. Danford of the Methodist church presiding and speaking words of trust, confidence and comfort to the bereaved. Friends, neighbors and acquaintances attended and testified thus their regret at the demise of a kind friend and neighbor. There were floral tributes from friends. Mrs. Grunert and son of Stevensville, Wis., Elvis Heath and wife of Montpelier Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKean and Ralph McKean of Sanborn were among those present from outside the city. Interment was made in Highland Home cemetery.

The Woodmen attended in a body, acted as pall-bearers and held brief services at the grave. They also sent a handsome floral pillow tribute in memory of their friend and Neighbor.

Adjutant Hayes of the Salvation Army spoke briefly in tribute of the Christian character of the deceased.
