Death of Roy McLain.

Roy James, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLain of Eckelson, died at eight o'clock Friday morning, Nov. 25th, 1904, of diphtheria, aged 10 years and 6 months.

Roy was a loving little fellow and a general favorite with all his playmates, who will greatly miss him.

He was buried in Sanborn cemetery, Saturday, Nov. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. McLain have the deep sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.
