

Death of Alex Moffat.

Word was received from Cooperstown last Saturday of the death of Mr. Alex Moffat of that place. His death was not unexpected, as he has long been a sufferer from asthma. Mr. Moffat was one of the early contractors and builders in Sanborn, and for many years he and his sons were our principal carpenters. Mr. Moffat was a man of intelligence, a great reader and an interesting conversationalist. Several years ago he left this place and located in Cooperstown, where he has since resided. He leaves a widow and a large family of children, all of whom have our sincere sympathy in their bereavement.
