From an extended and interesting obituary notice in the Advocate, of Drayton, Ont., of Mr. L. A. Noecker, (brother of Mr. Leo Noecker of this place), whose recent death was noted in these columns, we learn that the deceased was a very prominent and wealthy man of that section of Canada, and was reckoned one of the most extensive grain merchants in the Dominion. The notice is too long for us to publish in full, especially as the deceased was not known to many of our readers.
