

A. M. BOND MARRIED.

A. M. Bond, a former resident of Dazey, was recently united in marriage at Devils Lake and the Free Press gives the following account of the affair:

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth S. Sparks and Alexander M. Bond took place at the Church of the Advent at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, November 26, 1903, Rev. O. F. Jones officiating. Mr. H. E. Arnold played the wedding marches composed by Albert W. Berg and Lohengrin.

The doors were thrown open by George Strawbridge and Perry Sessions, who acted as ushers.

The party was led by Miss Zola Seymour, ring bearer, and Miss Vera Seymour, flower girl, both of Grand Forks. Miss Anna Stenson acted as bridesmaid. The bride came in leaning on her father's arm. They were met at the altar by the groom and groomsman, A. J. McInnes.

There the ceremony took place, after which the bridal party and guests returned to the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. B. Turner, where a bountiful reception was held. The house was decorated with pink and white ribbon, carnations, roses and smilax. The bride was dressed in cream silk lansdown. The bride's maid in cream etomine, the flower girls in white dimity.

Never was there such a display of beautiful and numerous presents.

Relatives of Mr. Bond's present were Mr. A. J. McInnes, of Dazey; Miss Olive McInnes, Mr. Hubert McInnes, Mr. and Mrs. McNamee, all of Kensal, and Mr. and Mrs. McKinzie of Grand Forks.

Relatives of bride present were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sparks, of Fox Lake; Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Welcome, of Edmore; N. P. Sparks, of Brockatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond went to keeping house at 527 Fourth St.
