

MARRIED.

The marriage of Fred Schilling and Miss Ida Schroeder, occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, three and a half miles northeast of the city on Tuesday of this week. There was a large attendance, about 175 of the friends of the bride and groom being present. The beginning of the ceremony was announced at 1 o'clock by the wedding march played by Miss Myrtle Kernkamp. This was followed by the ceremony proper, which was performed by Rev. Bohnhoff, after which the guests sat down to a magnificent wedding dinner. Dancing and games of various sorts followed and the festivities were kept up until the following morning. The newly married couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable gifts. They will begin housekeeping on the Chris Schilling farm, northeast of the city.

Their many friends extend hearty congratulations.
