

DAZEY.

Geo. Rasmussen went to Valley City last Thursday.

Attorney Spicer spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of C. W. J. Prydz.

Svend Undem entered school last week. The total enrollment is now 73.

Editor Nye, of the Times-Record, called on friends in the town last Monday.

Earl Wilson accompanied a car of stock to Glendive, Montana, last week.

The family of Rev. Kinley arrived last week, and the elder is again happy.

Rev. Gimblett, representing Fargo college, spent Friday and Saturday in the vicinity.

The cold snap of the past few days furnished an ample theme for conversation. Of course no two thermometers register the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Markuson of Hannaford, and their two children, were visiting with Jos. Markuson's family last Saturday.

There are rumors of the reorganization of the Dazey Dramatic club, with the intention of putting on a play some time in the winter.

Mrs. Keeland left for Glendive, Mont., last Friday, where she joins her husband, who recently left for that city. Mr. Keeland has a ranch there.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hartwell, Tuesday, December, an eight pound baby girl. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely. And that proud parental look on Mr. Hartwell's face.

Frank Fouche, the dramatic entertainer, gave an excellent program to a fair-sized audience at Social hall, Wednesday evening, December 9. The town was fortunate in being able to secure the services of such a splendid elocutionist. If it could only have properly appreciated it!

Saturday evening, the Royal Neighbors, auxiliary to the Woodmen lodge, held their annual election of officers. Mrs. George Laing succeeded Mrs. Prydz as chairman. A delectable supper was served after the meeting to quite a number of the friends of members.

A swell dance took place in the newly finished society hall last Monday evening. Moore's Concert company furnished the music, and supper was served at the Iowa. In spite of the intense cold, a considerable number came in from the vicinity and neighboring towns.

Ed Olson returned from the state of Washington, at which place he has selected a location near the town of Morse, not far from Spokane. He is enthusiastic over the west, and thinks there is nothing like it. Mr. Olson and family will probably all leave after the holidays.