

DAZEY.

O. Oppegaard spent last week in Valley City, returning this week.

A. Thurston was in Valley City on business a couple of days last week.

The school recently received three fine large new flags, one for each room.

The train went through to McHenry only three times last week, owing to the blizzards.

Sheriff Oppegaard was in town Saturday. He returned to Valley City in the evening.

Five horses and a cow were sold at sheriff's sale last Saturday, in front of the "Big Store".

O. T. Olson is going to put up a new twenty-horse power gasoline engine in the new elevator.

Ingebrit Mikkelson bought four horses, and Hans Straude one, at Saturday's sheriff's sale.

The school has been a rather cool place some of these days, due partly to