

DAZEY.

A new bank building is said to be contemplated this summer.

Emmet Mosher is busy on his house, which will probably be completed in a few weeks.

Nelson & Heimark are putting up a new machine shed, to accommodate their surplus stock.

Geo. J. Jacobson left last Saturday evening for Fargo, to take in the celebration on May seventeenth.

The board has secured and planted on the school grounds this year a hundred trees, chiefly elm, poplar and box-elder.

Among visitors to Fargo on the 'Seventeenth of Norway' were Louis Peterson, Andrew Thurston and N. J. Nelson.

A. E. Ross has been improving appearances around the Waldorf hotel by fencing in the yard, and planting some trees.

Final examinations are being held on Thursday and Friday of this week. Quite a large number are trying, we understand, to complete the eighth grade work.

A good many trees have been shipped in here this spring, which shows people are awakening fast to a realization of the best way to make North Dakota attractive.

Miss Olson, the music teacher from Cooperstown, will give a musicale on June 1, 1904. Several of her pupils here will assist on the program. It will be given in Society hall.

The Dazey Literary association will give their final program of the year at Society hall, on Friday evening, June 20. An elaborate program has been in process of preparation, and it is anticipated that the work of the year will be brought to a fitting close, and that all will be ready to take it up with renewed vigor the coming year.