

ORISKA.

Rev. Schaeble is visiting friends and relatives.

J. M. DeRhodes spent Monday at Valley City.

N. Gauche spent a day at Valley City last week.

Judge Johnson, of Valley City, was a caller at Oriska last week.

Messrs. Grady and Gray, of Valley City, were callers this week.

Christ Bergen and Charley Kruger were Valley City callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beils left last week for a visit with friends at Wheatland.

Mr. Utke left Tuesday morning for Washington, his former home, to look after his interests there.

Miss Dora Lange, who is attending the high school at Valley City, spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Bertha McIntyre left Tuesday morning to take up her work at the Normal school at Valley City for the coming year.

N. B. Perkins, of Ypsilanti, Mich., arrived Wednesday and is looking after his interests at Oriska. Mr. Perkins is one of the town site owners.

Geo. E. Nichols, representing the Van-Dusen-Harrington company was in town looking after wheat shipments last week. He claims the farmers can make some money shipping their own grain.

E. Kruger & Sons are making preparations to buy grain on the street the remainder of the fall, which will be a great help to the farmer in regard to prices. At the present time there is too much difference in prices from what the grain brings at the terminal points.

J. M. DeRhodes, who has spent a couple of weeks looking after his interests here, left Wednesday for his home at South Bend, Ind. Mr. DeRhodes, having spent a good many years in business at Oriska, is well pleased with its future prospects and with the flourishing condition of the farmers in this vicinity.

DAZEY.

Miss Quamme stopped over Sunday in Valley City.

Still no rain at this writing and threshing goes merrily on.

The blacksmiths have been working overtime repairing broken down threshing rigs, which is a sign that something is doing in North Dakota.

Mrs. LaValley of Moorhead, is among the guests at the Iowa.

The wheat yield is quite irregular it appears, varying from 12 to 30 bushels.

Mr. Knudson has been undergoing medical treatment for an aggravating sore eye.

Ray Thurston left last Monday for Valley City, where he will resume his studies at the Normal.

A rumor has it that a gentleman named Kiser recently was the victim of a cruel stroke of paralysis or apoplexy.

Miss Donelda Hamlin, left last week for Wheatland, near which place she is engaged to teach until the holidays.

Mr. LaValley has an acreage of 12,000 in wheat, so they say. Why, he must be what they call a "bonanza" farmer.

The novelty is largely worn off chicken hunting already, for which fact the chickens are undoubtedly duly thankful.

Some of our enterprising merchants, finding their business growing, recently invested in some new cash registers, so reports say.

Chas. Fredendoll, of Ida Grove, Iowa, has been busy the past several weeks attending to his crop interests on his various farms in the vicinity.

Furnished rooms to let. Apply at O. Simensen's store. 26-27.

Will rent the first floor of my house on lower Main street—Inquire of Mrs. P. Winger.

Fred Rossing has the foundation in for a good sized addition to his residence on sixth avenue.

Mrs. Featherstone and Miss Helen returned last Monday from Fergus Falls, where they have been visiting relatives for about a week.

Mrs. Jared Freeman, mother of Mrs. George M. Young, left yesterday for her home in St. Charles, Mich., after visiting in the city for about a month.

Mrs. A. H. Gray and Miss Amy are expected home Saturday. They have been away several months and have been visiting in Indiana and Michigan.

Eddie Mason left Saturday for Cambridge, Mass., for the purpose of re-entering the law school at Harvard college. He expects to graduate in the spring.