

DAZEY.

Father Sailer came up from Valley City last Saturday.

Attorney Burke took time to call up a few friends while the train stopped.

Mr. O. T. Olson's large new mansion is undergoing a coat of paint and they expect soon to move in.

The M. E. Sunday school meets on Sunday afternoons now, instead of in the forenoon, as formerly.

Nels Larson & Co. have put down a good solid modern cement sidewalk in front of "The Big Store."

Miss Annie Stover, of Norwich, Ontario, has for some time been the guest of the family of Mr. Chas. Stover.

Rev. Halfpenny's successor not having arrived, the pastor remained to preach another sermon—a kind of "post-farewell" sermon.

Dr. Spicer has a patient at "The Iowa" who is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism contracted by exposure during the threshing season.

Sheriff Oppegard was in town Saturday to conduct a mentally deranged person, who is said to reside somewhere south-east of town, to the state hospital.

Elmer Oppegard has now moved into a meat market that puts slightly in the shade all previous similar efforts that have ever before been made in these parts.

Who says that vegetables cannot be grown in North Dakota? Well, show them the specimen of squash, home grown, that is on exhibit inside of J. D. LaValley's office window.

Mr. Pierce, who for some months has been representing the Emerson Implement Co. in this vicinity, left Saturday for Fargo with Mrs. Pierce where they expect to stay if they remain in the north through the winter.

The Lutherans gave an elaborate supper at their church last Saturday evening. There was a splendid attendance and what was better, all seemed to enjoy themselves. After the supper an auction was held, at which various articles of feminine ingenuity were offered for sale and knocked down to the highest bidder.

A late report is to the effect that the hens have unionized and gone on a strike.

Attorney Spicer, of Cooperstown, was in town Sunday visiting with relatives.

The police administration of the town does not seem to meet with the approval of all the citizens.

Mr. Gad, who stays with Markuson & Co., went to McHenry recently and came back with a charming young bride. Congratulations.

The wild fowl are getting onto the game of the crafty nimrods who plot their destruction. One wonders that any are left, when we consider the massacre that has been going on.

A rumor reached us that the organization of a basketball team is being projected for the coming year, the older girls at the school to be the chief participants. The experience with basket ball last year is pleasantly remembered, especially by those of us who took part and it is to be hoped that the rumor is true.

Mr. John W. Arctander, the distinguished Norwegian lawyer from Minneapolis, spoke in Our Savior's Church last Friday afternoon to a small audience. He is giving voluntarily of his time and labor to raise the debt of Augsburg Seminary. It is reported that in less than two weeks he has raised over seven thousand dollars of a total debt of some thirteen thousand. Mr. Arctander is a talented speaker and well worth one's trouble to hear. His speaking in the Scandinavian tongue deterred a good many from hearing him who would otherwise have attended.
