

DEATH OF JOHN ROBBINS.

John E. Robbins, a well known young farmer whose home was about three miles southeast of the city, died at Woodlawn hospital Saturday afternoon after an illness of about three weeks' duration. The cause of death was typhoid fever. Mr. Robbins was between 34 and 35 years of age and was born at Waupun, Wis. He has been a resident of Barnes county about twenty-three years, coming here with his parents when a child. He leaves a wife and six children. He was a member of the L. O. O. F., A. O. U. W. and Modern Woodmen, all of which societies participated in the funeral ceremonies which were held Monday afternoon in the Congregational church. The body was taken to Waupun, Wis., for burial.
