

CAMPBELL-HOLLISTER.

Clyde Leith Campbell, of Fargo, and Miss Mary Olivia Hollister, of this city, were united in marriage at All Saints church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Peake, of St. Paul, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. Harvey Kerstetter, of Minot.

The church was prettily decorated by the young ladies of the Altar guild, of which society Miss Hollister had been president.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine with puffings of the same and point de Paris lace. The bridal veil of tulle was caught with a crescent of pearls, a gift of the groom. The bride's bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Alice Campbell, a sister of the groom, as bridesmaid was gowned in white organdy trimmed with yellow roses, with picture hat of green chiffon, and her bouquet, like that of the bride, was of white roses.

Esther Peake, as pillow bearer, wore white mull with blue ribbon and picture hat of white and blue. She preceded the bride to the chancel rail, where the groom stood waiting with his best man, Fred W. Holland, of Fargo.

Lillie Healey, as organist, played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

Rew T. Healey and T. S. Henry acted as ushers.

Hon. B. S. Russell, of Jamestown, an old friend of Miss Hollister and her family, gave the bride away.

Among those present from outside the city were Judge and Mrs. J. G. Campbell, of Dickinson, the parents of the groom.

Following the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of Col. and Mrs Peake, where dinner was served with covers laid for eighteen. The tables had been elaborately decorated with flowers, which consisted principally of carnations and snowballs. The waitresses were Misses V. W. Wessett, Vera Keene, Margie and Clara Sanders, former classmate of Miss Hollister's class, all of whom acted as waitresses for the occasion.
