

WEDDING BELLS.

In the presence of relatives and a few immediate friends, Tuesday afternoon, September 29, a most delightful event occurred at La Grove, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jaberg, when their only daughter, Stella Grace, was united in marriage to Fredric Otto Olsen, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Olsen, of Sanborn, Rev. J. R. Beebe, of New Rockford, officiating. Promptly at four o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, played by Miss Clare Olsen, sister of the groom. Master Rollin Jaberg, brother of the bride, acting as ring bearer, was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Olive Worst, of Fargo who was becomingly attired in white French lawn with lace and carrying pink and white carnations and ferns. The groom was attended by his brother, N. J. R. Olsen, both in conventional black, and the bride followed on the arm of her father, beautifully gowned in white organdie and real lace over white taffeta and carrying bride's roses and ferns. The party advanced to an alcove of green and white and stood under a bell of smilax and white carnations, facing the assembled guests. The waiting minister stepped forward and after a few earnest, kindly words proceeded with the ceremony. In response to the question, "Who gives this bride away?" Mr. Jaberg placed his daughter's hand in the hand of the groom and made the answer, "I do," and Mr. Beebe performed the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. At its close and while the happy couple were receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mrs. E. F. Langer sang. At five o'clock the entire party were seated at daintily appointed tables, bountifully laden with the good things of life to which they did ample justice. Departing at an early hour, the guests carried with them the memory of one of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized and all joined in loving wishes for the happiness and long life of the bride and groom, who have grown from childhood in this vicinity and who have always been prime favorites among their many friends. There were present from abroad Miss Olive Worst, Fargo; Rev. J. R. Beebe, New Rockford; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerder, Devils Lake; A. S. Langer, Dazey; Mrs. Maud H. Moe, Valley City.

The bride received many useful and elegant presents.
