

DAZEY.

Miss Quamme returned from Cooperstown last Sunday.

The teachers all went home for their Thanksgiving dinners.

Turkey raffles have been all the go—apropos of the season.

E. A. Duff has charge of the drug store in the absence of Mr. Gallegly.

J. L. LaValley spent a portion of last week with his family in Moorhead.

Mr. Chanley, of Minneapolis, has been looking after the land interest of a Minnesota firm.

Now that the threshers are well out of the country, Dazey has resumed its usual quiet.

H. A. Gallegly was called away to Illinois recently by a telegram announcing the serious illness of a relative.

Quite a number of the Dazey young folks surprised Miss Anna Hamlin at her home, Friday evening, November 20. Miss Hamlin proved a delightful hostess and amply equal to the occasion.

Last Monday evening a number of the young people of the village surprised Miss Lulu Larsen at her home. The evening was delightfully spent in games of "flinch," music, refreshments and—conversation. The guests departed at a late hour.

Geo. Laing's were quarantined last Tuesday, on account of their child having the scarlet fever. It is a mild form that has been epidemic around here, but it is hoped that the disease would have been stamped out.

The school gave a Thanksgiving program to a large and appreciative audience at the Lutheran church, Tuesday evening, November, 24; the program was not long, quality rather quantity having evidently been the aim in its preparation. The closing dialogue, "Goin' Somewhere," was especially well rendered, and highly appreciated by the audience.

The school has arranged for an entertainment by the distinguished dramatist artist, Mr. Fouche, for the evening of December 9th. He is a gentleman of marked ability in his line, and no one can well afford to miss him, especially as such attractions are quite rare here. Besides, the proceeds go to the school library.

Last Tuesday morning, Mrs. Alexander MacInnes passed away at her home northwest of town. Her husband it will be remembered died less than a year ago. She leaves several children, splendid examples of a mother's care, to mourn her loss. To these her friends extend their sympathy in the hour of bereavement.
