

A number from this locality attended the dance at Spiritwood last Friday night. Report says they had a good time.

Walter McLain has been fitting up the buildings on his recently purchased farm, preparatory to moving there in the spring.

O. W. Maier received the sad intelligence this week of the death of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Thiel, of Cedar Creek, Mich.

Geo. Miller, of Sioux Falls, S. D., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. Allen, for the past two weeks. He returned home on Monday.

Prof. Ed Deeny, of district 58, is preparing to have an entertainment of some kind before long. A nice program with a basket social attached was the latest rumor.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Jones, of Clark City, who have been visiting in Wisconsin for several weeks, returned home the fore part of this week.

There will be a meeting of the Lyceum in school house No. 1 Friday evening. An attractive program has been arranged and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Jesse Atkins, of Sanborn, spent Saturday and Sunday with W. O. Green and family. Mrs. Atkins, who has been visiting for several days in the neighborhood, returned home with him.

Mrs. C. W. Maier, who has been in Valley City for several weeks being treated for rheumatism, spent a few days at home last week but left on Monday evening for Fargo where she goes for further treatment.

DAZEY.

Miss Donelda Hamlin expects to make an extended trip soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Markuson are visiting at the home of Mrs. Markuson, in Wisconsin, we believe.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hamlin returned Saturday from a pleasant visit of several days at the Twin Cities.

Geo. J. Jacobson, of the Dazey State bank, has been spending the past couple of weeks in Minneapolis.

J. E. Jacobsens' little daughter underwent an operation last Friday at the hands of Dr. Spicer, assisted by a Cooperstown physician. The little patient is rapidly recovering.

Miss Jessie Langer, the popular primary teacher of last year, was here attending to her sick brother recently.

Mr. Gillespie, of Sanborn, has been here several days looking after the lumber yard in the absence of Mr. Langer.

R. E. Lee moved into the Iowa with his family last Saturday, where they are comfortably located in a suite of five rooms.

Twenty-five books have recently been sent for out of the proceeds of the basket auction, to be added to the school library.

This spell of cold weather has about taxed the patience of even the old timers, to the utmost. This winter is surely, in some respects, a record breaker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Thurston were in Valley City last week to see the game between Company G and Company B. Their son Ray figures as a member of the former team.

Those who attended the concert given by the distinguished violinist, Christian Hansen, speak highly of the gentleman's ability as a player of truly high class music.

Two plays, "From Sumter to Appomattox" and "The Woodmen's Picnic" are in process of preparation by the local Thespians. Both are expected to appear sometime in March.

The pupils' literary society held its meeting Thursday afternoon and celebrated both Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays in fitting manner, besides giving a general program.

Gus Langer has quite recovered from his recent illness, and is expected to be back here permanently this week. He dropped into town Saturday, returning to Sanborn in the evening.

The Lincolns' birthday holiday was postponed a week, to bring all the holidays together, thus making a four-day vacation. The teachers will probably all take advantage of this opportunity by visiting their respective homes.

A couple of our young gentlemen dancers betook themselves to Wimbledon Friday evening to take in their grand ball. After a ride in such a storm we would think it would take considerable to repay the inconvenience and exposure in getting there.

The Dazey Literary association meet Friday evening, at the school house, as usual. On February 19, the subject for the debate will be, "Resolved that Capitol Punishment is Justifiable." Dr. Spicer and H. A. Gallegly will defend the affirmative, while Mr. Prydz and Rev. Kinley will present the negative side of the question.

HERE'S HEALTH FOR YOU.

