

DAZEY.

Peck's Bad Boy was in town recently to the delight of the younger generation.

The stores have decided to close at 6 p. m. until April,—except on Saturdays.

Attorney Spicer has moved his law office from Cooperstown to Dazey. He is already located in the Wilson, next door to the Iowa.

A Lyceum or Debating club is being projected for the town. It is to be hoped that enough will take part to make it successful.

The Royal Neighbors had a social at society hall last Saturday evening. quite a number were present and a pleasant time is reported.

A. O. LaValley is back from a visit of several weeks at his old home at Austin, Minn. On his way back, he took in "Ben Hur," at Minneapolis. The play was magnificently staged and well acted, and he felt quite fortunate in having had an opportunity to witness it.