

DAZEY.

Mrs. Nels Larson returned from Valley City Monday morning.

L. A. Wood, of Valley City, was in town Wednesday and Friday of this week.

Architect Wallbridge and family have gone to Cooperstown to spend the winter.

Hans Oppegard, candidate for sheriff on the democratic ticket, was in town Saturday looking up his interests.

Mr. Aandahl, the popular republican candidate for register of deeds, was in town Saturday shaking hands with his many friends.

County Superintendent Barnes, J. R. Getchell, candidate for commissioner in the third district, and Joseph H. Rogers, candidate for representative, fifteenth district, were in Dazey last Tuesday.

Little Polly Stover has been quite ill with cholera infantum the past week but is rapidly recovering under Dr. Nolte's care. Her trouble was caused by impure milk. Mr. Stover's milch cows have all had the garget and the milk was probably tainted from the unhealthy animals.

The young people of Dazey celebrated Hallowe'en with a dance. To protect the lares and penates of the good people of our village, the city fathers had two special policemen deputized for the night. They must either have gone to sleep or joined the revellers, as the usual vandalisms and depredations were perpetrated, exposing many a family skeleton.

A farewell party was given at the parsonage last Wednesday evening for Rev. and Mrs. Kinley. The evening was spent with a number of attractions including music, singing, games, and a donkey contest. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served and the party closed with singing "Gód be with you-till we meet again." Rev. Kinley and family left on Friday for their future home near Minot.

Last Thursday evening the republican club held another rally. The
