

DAZEY.

M. Brown lost a valuable cow last week.

Amy Osborne, music teacher, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Gad went to McHenry to spend Sunday with her sister.

Justice Gipson, of Wimbledon, was in Dazey on business last week.

Andrew Thurston is confined to the house with an attack of pericarditis.

Lloyd Morton, republican county treasurer, was a Dazey visitor this week.

R. E. Lee is now occupying the rooms vacated by Dr. Spicer and family.

M. C. Kribs and Wm. McDonald, of Wimbledon, were in town on business this week.

Gus Thune has been appointed village marshal in place of Smith Davis, who resigned.

Lon Wilson returned on Saturday from Fargo, where he had been to consult Dr. Darrow.

E. L. McGee, democratic candidate for county auditor, was here this week to look up his friends.

O. H. deS. Irgens, of Rogers, candidate on the republican ticket for judge of the county court, spent a day at Dazey.

Rev. Kinley and family will leave for Dunseith next Friday. We regret that he could not remain with us another year.

W. D. Swarthout was down from Wimbledon this week. He is the democratic candidate for commissioner, third district.

Justice M. C. Spicer has built up a good practice. His work has increased so that he has employed a stenographer to do the clerical work.

John Carlson and George Lang have planted a row of fine boxelders, extending from Carlson's confectionery store to the M. E. church.

L. Peterson is going to Fargo to take charge of an elevator. He expects to locate there and his family will join him as soon as he can secure a house.

The sewing society of the Norwegian Lutheran church gave a supper and auction Saturday evening. There was a large crowd and a very good time is reported.

The republican club had another rally last Wednesday. Michael Murphy addressed the meeting. The usual large crowd attended and great interest was shown. Mr. Murphy discussed county politics. Great enthusiasm was evinced whenever the names of Henry, Lillethun, Morton, Aandahl or Irgens were mentioned. The rally started with a torch light procession, fifty torches in line led by the brass band.

The Royal Neighbors gave a dancing party at Society hall last Friday evening. The hall never looked brighter and a jollier party never assembled on the floor to glide through the entrancing waltz and fascinating two step. A bountiful and delicious lap supper was served at midnight. The following Neighbors received and entertained the guests: Mesdames Laing, Sowman, Colville, Geo. Lee, Larson, J. Nelson, and Miss Holman.