

Rev. Natwick preached his farewell sermon in the Mabel Lutheran church last Sunday, and was greeted by a large crowd. There was a class of seven confirmed, after which the infant of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey was baptized. At the close of the service most of the crowd went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson, where they gave Mr. and Mrs. Natwick quite a surprise in the form of a very substantial present, I. A. Kampen acting as spokesman. Mr. Natwick was also remembered by the Y. P. S., likewise Mrs. Natwick by the Lutheran ladies' aid. The folks present also partook of a fine dinner which had been prepared by the ladies.
