

T. S. Davidson was called to Fargo by a message Saturday, advising him that his brother, Wm Davidson of Cooperstown was not expected to live. He had been taken to Fargo a week previous where he was operated on for appendicitis, following which he contracted pneumonia. Word received from Fargo conveyed the information that Mr. Davidson passed away Wednesday.