

Gust Lindgren, an old time resident of Cooperstown, died Wednesday, July-18. Mr. Lindgren was a familiar figure in Sutton during the first year of its existence, having done considerable cistern and brick work here.