

Jackson-Bailey

Wedding

Tuesday of this week, James W. Bailey and Miss Charlotte Jackson took a journey to Cooperstown, where they were united in marriage by Rev. Estrom, pastor of the Lutheran church of that city.

The young couple is well known in this community, which has always been their home, the groom being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey, and the bride the daughter of Mr. Chris Jackson.

No information has yet been secured as to their future plans.

The Reporter joins their friends in wishing them a happy wedded career.
