

Kjelson-Bauer

Clarence Kjelson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kjelson, arrived here Wednesday with his bride-to-be, Miss Augusta W. Bauer of Napoleon, and after securing the necessary papers at Cooperstown, journeyed to Hannaford where they were united in marriage by Rev. Geo. S. Natwick.

Clarence is known by most everybody here as this is his boyhood home. After reaching manhood his industry and ability were stepping stones to responsible positions, being in the employ, at the time of enlisting in the war, of Marshall-Wells Co. of Duluth. On his return from France he became manager of the Napoleon Hardware Co. at Napoleon, this state, which will be the happy couple's future home.

Their many friends here will extend best wishes for a happy career.
