

Saturday evening Ferd Olsen was called to Fargo by the news that his son Albert was very low but he was able to pull through the critical period, and it is now believed he is past the danger period,