

Ferd Olsen has been confined to his room almost two weeks by a siege of flu. His condition was such that the attention of a physician has been required. He is now improving and hopes to be out in a few days.