

The local Woodmen went to Cooperstown Monday night to assist with the initiation of a number of candidates. Bert Urban was one of the victims. Ed Rhodes, formerly a member of the Cooperstown lodge, had his membership changed to the local lodge at their last regular meeting. We are informed they will have a class of six or more at their next session.