

This week Clyde Wells severed his connection with the pool hall and barber shop located in George Allen's building, his successor being P. J. Kleis. Clyde enjoyed an exceptionally good business during the past year and has proven himself to be a hustler. He went to Grace City Thursday to investigate an offer to embark in the same business in that town.