

While on their way to church Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Zollner had a narrow escape from serious injury. As they were turning the corner at P. Hafner's their car turned over completely upside down, pinning Mrs. Zollner under it in such a manner that she could not get out until her husband and Mr. Hafner raised the auto on its side. Her wrist and arm were quite badly bruised, but in a few hours she was pretty well recovered from the shock.
