

OBITUARY

Carl Lauritz Anderson was born at Ellsworth Wisconsin January 29, 1875 and died December 31, 1924, thus lacking 30 days of being 50 years old.

At the age of five years his mother died, and after he was 11 or 12 years old he made his own way in the world, having worked for some time in an elevator at Ellsworth.

He went to Cooperstown in 1901 where he worked in the Larson store and was also manager of the Great Western elevator a number of years.

In 1906 he went to Hannaford where he was associated with the Hannaford Mercantile Co. store for five years.

He was married January 1, 1907, to Nettie Brenden, two children, Myrtle and Rudolph being born to them.

In 1912 when Sutton was started he and his family came here, and for two years he was manager of the Hammer-Thingelstad Co. store, after which they moved to Ellsworth Wis. where they lived on a farm two years. Returning to Sutton at the end of that time he and Joseph Ebentier formed a partnership and started the Anderson & Ebentier store, of which he was manager until his death.

He is survived by his wife and two children, three brothers, Jake of Montana, Anton and Chris of Ellsworth. An only sister, Mrs. Ole Christopherson, died five years ago at Ellsworth.

Relatives who attended the funeral were Anton and Chris Anderson and Ole Christopherson of Ellsworth, Mrs. M. I. Moudahl of White Rock South Dakota, Chris and Randolph Brenden of Osage Iowa.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church Saturday at one o'clock, the sermon being delivered by Rev. Estrem of Cooperstown. The music consisted of solos by Misses Myrtle Olson and Verna Anderson, and also songs by a local choir.

Pall bearers were Tom Swingen and Martin Garlid of Cooperstown, Chris Reite of Hannaford, C. W. Nicoll, Ed Rhodes, and Joseph Ebentier of Sutton.

A vast concourse of friends and neighbors was present to pay their last respects to the departed, the church accommodating but a little more than half the number assembled.

On Monday the body was taken to Ellsworth Wisconsin to be laid in its last resting place.

Charley, as he was familiarly called, was a man who took an active interest in all affairs of a local and public nature. Perhaps all did not agree with him at times, but it may be said of him that he always stood firmly for the right and never failed or refused to uphold truth, justice and morality.

Thus is chronicled the passing of one of Sutton's best citizens. May we not forget that our loss is a severe one.
