

Donald Campbell, formerly a farmer and breeder of Clydesdale horses living near Hannaford, died at Mitchell, Ontario two weeks ago. He was well known by horse breeders all over the state.