

Obituary

Peter Fuglstad was born July 8, 1904 and died February 24, 1925, his age being 20 years, seven months and sixteen days. Deceased spent his entire life in the home neighborhood, having been in the employ of E. D. Stewart for some time.

He was a member of the Modern Woodman lodge in which order he carried a life insurance policy.

Members of the family surviving him are his father, Hans Fuglstad, and three brothers, Erling, Harold and Egell, his mother having passed away two years ago.

Funeral services were held at Mabel Lutheran church Thursday, being in charge of Rev. John Haaland of Hannaford.

Music was provided by a ladies' quartet composed of Mrs. L. TeHennepe, Mabel Olson, Cynthia Stewart and Lillian Byington, with Mrs. Sam Simenson at the organ. Also a duet was sung by Misses Myrtle Anderson and Cynthia Stewart.

Pall bearers were the following members of the M. W. A. lodge: Joseph Peterson, C. W. Fallen, H. J. Emersan, H. L. Davidson, John Peters and Lester Kjelson.