

O. B. Hoff Passed Away Monday

O. B. Hoff died at 11 o'clock Monday at Rochester Minnesota, following an attempted operation for the removal of an abdominal tumor. An examination, however, that cancer had developed to so great an extent that there was no hope for his recovery.

The body was taken to Cooperstown Wednesday and the funeral held Thursday afternoon at the Lutheran church, the services being in charge of Rev. A. O. Nessel from Leeds. Burial was at Cooperstown cemetery, at which time Rev. A. M. Hewson gave a short talk touching on the life and character of Mr. Hoff.

Oliver Bernhard Hoff, son of